

The BW Plan

1. Introduction

The Trustees of the Plan (the Trustees) aims to run the Plan efficiently and fairly. However, disagreements or complaints may sometimes arise.

This Procedure explains how Plan members and other eligible individuals can raise formal complaints about the administration or operation of the Plan, as well as how concerns relating to the handling of personal data by or on behalf of the Trustee will be considered.

Most queries or concerns can be resolved informally, and members are encouraged, in the first instance, to raise any issues with the Third-Party Administrator, XPS.

If a matter cannot be resolved informally, this Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure (IDRP) provides a formal process for raising a complaint. This Procedure is established in accordance with the requirements of the Pensions Act 1995 and The Occupational Pension Plans (Internal Dispute Resolution Procedures Consequential and Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2008 and the Data Protection Act 2018.

2. Who can use the IDRP?

2.1 Plan-related complaints

You may use this Procedure if the complaint relates to the Plan and you are an eligible person. You are an eligible person if you are:

- a member of the Plan;
- a widow, widower, surviving civil partner or a surviving dependant of a deceased member of the Plan;
- a surviving non-dependant beneficiary of a deceased member of the Plan;
- a person who has previously been within one of the above three categories;
- a prospective member, in other words
 - you can become a member of the Plan if you so choose, or
 - you will be able to do so if you continue in the same employment for a sufficiently long period, or
 - you will be admitted to the Plan automatically unless you make an election not to do so, or
 - you may be admitted to the Plan if your employer consents;
- there is a disagreement which relates to a question about whether you should be in one of the above groups
- you have ceased to be any of the above within the six months immediately before you make a complaint using this procedure

You can also use this procedure if you are:

- The personal representative of a deceased eligible person
- Acting on behalf of an eligible person who is a minor or someone otherwise incapable of acting for themselves, or

Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure – The BW Plan

- You have been nominated by an eligible person.

2.2 Data protection complaints

This Procedure may also be used by you, whether or not you are a member of the Plan, where the complaint relates to the handling of your personal data by or on behalf of the Trustee.

3. What does this IDRP apply to?

3.1 Plan disputes

This Procedure applies to disagreements between anyone listed above and the Trustee about matters relating to the Plan.

It does not apply to:

- disagreements solely between members and employers;
- matters where proceedings have been commenced in any court or tribunal; or
- matters already being investigated by the Pensions Ombudsman.

If proceedings commence in any court or tribunal or the Pension Ombudsman starts investigating after you have started using this procedure, then the complaint will no longer be considered under this procedure.

3.2 Data protection complaints

A data protection complaint is any concern because you consider that your personal data has been processed in a way that does not comply with data protection law. This may include (for example):

- how your personal data has been collected, used, stored or shared;
- delays or issues in responding to your subject access request (SAR);
- the security measures used to store your information; or
- concerns about accuracy, retention or security of your personal data.

You do not need to describe your concern as a “data protection complaint” for it to be treated as one.

4. Representation and assistance

You may make a complaint yourself or ask a representative (such as a family member, adviser or friend) to act for you. Where you appoint a representative to act on your behalf, the Trustee will require written confirmation of the appointment. This may be provided by signed letter, email confirmation from your usual email address, or a formal power of attorney.

If you are under 18 or unable to act for yourself, a suitable person may apply on your behalf.

If you die before the matter is resolved, a complaint may be started or continued by your personal representative.

5. How to submit a formal complaint

5.1 Form of application

Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure – The BW Plan

You must set out the nature of the complaint clearly and include enough information to allow it to be investigated.

Your complaint may be submitted:

- in writing by post;
- by email; or
- by any other reasonable written method made available by the Trustee.

A complaint form is appended to this Policy. Its use is strongly encouraged, as it helps ensure that all relevant information is provided to allow the Trustee to investigate your concern fully. Use of the form is not compulsory, and complaints in relation to Plan disputes will be accepted in any written format that provides sufficient detail. Although written data protection complaints are preferred, this is not compulsory.

5.2 Information to include

Where the complaint relates to your own Plan membership, you should include (where available):

- full name and address;
- date of birth;
- National Insurance number;
- Plan reference number;
- a clear explanation of the complaint, supporting evidence where available and what outcome you are seeking.

Where the complaint relates to another person, you should also explain your relationship to that individual and provide relevant identifying information

5.3. Acknowledgment and investigation

The Trustee will

- aim to acknowledge receipt of the complaint within five working days but will acknowledge receipt no later than 30 calendar days after it is received;
- investigate the complaint without undue delay and will liaise with any relevant third parties to obtain the information needed to fully consider your complaint. This may include the Plan employer, the Plan administrator, you and any other party involved in the running or operation of the Plan. The Trustee will also keep you reasonably informed of progress where appropriate.

All complaints will be handled sensitively and in confidence. Information will only be shared where necessary to investigate the complaint or where required by law.

Unless you request otherwise, the Trustee will normally communicate with you using the same method by which the complaint was submitted. Alternative formats can be provided on request.

6. Decision and response

Once the investigation is complete, the Trustee (or their delegate) will issue a written decision.

Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure – The BW Plan

Where practicable, the Trustee aims to provide a substantive outcome within four months of receipt of the complaint and sooner if possible. If additional time is required, the reasons for the delay will be explained and an updated expected timeframe will be provided. If your complaint covers both Plan related complaints and Data Protection complaints, the Trustee may reply to these separately.

The decision will include, as appropriate:

- the outcome and reasons for the decision;
- references to relevant legislation, statutory guidance or the governing documents relating to the Plan;
- details of any discretion exercised; and
- information about further escalation options.

7. What if you are not satisfied?

7.1 Plan complaints

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you may refer it to the Pensions Ombudsman, who has the power to investigate and determine complaints or disputes of fact or law relating to pension Plans.

A complaint must generally be made to the Pensions Ombudsman:

- Within 3 years of the act or omission complained about, or
- Within 3 years of when the individual knew (or ought reasonably to have known) about it

The Pensions Ombudsman does have some discretion to waive these time limits.

7.2 Data protection complaints

If your complaint relates to the handling of personal data you may raise the matter with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at any point.

8. Contact details

If you need assistance during the complaints process, the following contacts may be able to help. Each has a different role in relation to the Plan and its administration.

Plan contact

This is your primary point of contact for Plan-related queries and for submitting a complaint under this Procedure. They can help clarify Plan benefits, processes, and any information needed to progress your complaint.
